PICKLE BALL

Pickle Ball is new to the ARC. It's very popular overseas and just taking off in Australia. It's currently running on Sunday mornings at the ARC and has been introduced to Daylesford by Wendy Vorstenbosch.

Wendy is a Pickle Ball enthusiast and is happy to keep her sessions fun, casual and open to all ages. It's more about getting out and having some fun. Participants so far have ranged from 11-70+, so it has a wide appeal for many reasons. Pickle Ball is a bit of a cross between Tennis, Badminton and Table Tennis. It's played on a badminton court with a net that's not as high as a tennis net, no over-arm allowed and the paddles are made of plastic!

Bookings are suggested if you want to join in, but you are welcome to just come along and have a hit. No experience is necessary—just a willingness to have a go and have some fun at the same time. The good thing about Pickle Ball is no experience is necessary.

Call Wendy on 0458 372 906 to let her know you're interested!

Sessions are $10 per person
